U. S. BOMBS HIT NAZI FACTORIES

Final Plans Made for Marion Bond Auction Friday Night

Fortresses Fly Nearly to Berlin To Blast Airplane Factory.

By The Associated Press
LONDON, July 29—Boldly defying Hitler's fading air strength, swarms of American Flying Fortresses flew unescorted and in broad daylight yesterday to within 80 miles of Berlin to smash the Nazi aircraft plant at Oshersleben.

Kassel, site of a big Focke-Wulf assembly plant about 200 miles southwest of Berlin, also was battered by the big American bombers, which were reported to have shot down upwards of 60 Nazi fighters attempting to beat them off. The Americans lost 23 bombers during the roundup of more than 1,000 allies, a communiqué said. One allied fighter plane also was lost.

The Oshersleben raid was the deepest American daylight thrust of the war into Germany.

Indicating that the round-the-clock bombings had extended into last night, the Berlin radio reported early today British planes had made scattered "nuisance raids" on northwestern Germany during the night.

The American blow at enemy aircraft production followed a night raid by the RAF on smoldering Hamburg in which more than 2,300 long tons were loosed—the greatest bomb load in history.

The raid on Hamburg, submarine center and north German industrial port, was the sixth on that city in a series of American and British day and night attacks which began Saturday night.

A large number of donations continued to be received by the Marion county war bond and stamp committee today as plans neared completion for the bond and stamp auction tomorrow night at the courthouse. The auction will highlight Marion county's participation in the month-long nationwide drive to raise $130,000,000 for the purchase of the aircraft carrier Shangri-La to bomb Tokyo.

The latest group of gifts received included several more hard-to-get items such as bed sheets, chewing gum and alarm clocks.

Because of the regulations set up by the office of price administration, meat and other rationed articles will not be distributed on a point-free basis at the auction, the committee announced.

The committee requested Marion countyans planning to attend the auction to bring their ration books with them so sales can be completed during the course of the auction. The bond committee indicated that sales of rationed items will not be made to persons who fail to present their ration books.

At 8:45 p. m. Friday, 15 minutes before the auction will start, the Harding High school band under the direction of Homer E. Huffman will present a short concert.

Jerry Passen, who is directing the month-long Marion county Shangri-La drive, explained today that bonds of any series or denomination will be available at the auction Saturday night. He said bonds and stamps will be distributed from the Victory House by a corps of women workers headed by Miss Maude Gorman.

The auction will be conducted in exactly the same manner as all public sales, except that highest bidders will purchase their bids in war bonds and stamps and receive free the item on which they bid.

Y. M. Wickersham of east of Marion will serve as auctioneer.

COFFEE RATIONING ENDS, SUGAR DUE

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, July 29—Shipbuilding and anti-sub successes poured unrationed coffee into America's cup for breakfast this morning—and left a hint of more sugar soon.

The end of coffee rationing—approximately seven months after it started—was announced last night by President Roosevelt in his address to the nation. He added that "we also expect that within a short time we shall get greatly increased allowances of sugar."

He termed the developments a tangible result of vast increases in available shipping space and greater successes in the war against U-boats.

Mr. Roosevelt combined these home front phrases with talk of battles, explaining that "no one can draw a blue pencil down the middle of a page and call one side the fighting front and the other side the 'home front.' The two are inexorably tied together."

He paid high tribute to the Russians. Their success has shown, he said, that "it is dangerous to make a prophecy about them—a fact forcibly brought home to that mystic master of strategic intuition, Herr Hitler."

Then he said the United States should always be "glad to be a good neighbor and a sincere friend" of Russia which "in saving itself is thereby helping to save all the world from the Nazi menace."

His reference to ill-starred Mussolini was brief, but pointed. The Duce "and his Fascist gang will be brought to book and punished for their crimes," the President declared.

Tokyo Admits Lack of Merchant Ships To Exploit Gains

By The Associated Press
President Roosevelt's disclosure that Japan had lost more ships than she had been able to replace was underlined today by a Tokyo broadcast solemnly recalling the lack of shipping "determined the fate of Germany in the first World war."

The broadcast warning the Japanese people it was "absolutely essential" for Japan to concentrate on shipbuilding, admitted diminishing transport facilities prevented the shipment of products from Java, Borneo, Burma and other conquered lands to Japan.

New blows against the enemy's shipping were announced by Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters today in a communiqué reporting that allied air-sea attacks had left a Japanese destroyer and a transport in flames, damaged a 2,500-ton freighter, and sank 13 barges.

The communiqué gave no fresh information on the siege of the prize Japanese air base at Munda, in the central Solomons, but a delayed dispatch from J. Norman Lodge, Associated Press correspondent with American forces outside Munda, said indescribable conditions in the jungles, hills and defiles made it doubtful the stronghold would be captured before mid-August.

Lodge said American troops were within sight of Munda air-drome, but that a daily gain of 200 yards was considered remarkable.

On "the China front, Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's headquarters chronicled spectacular new successes for American fliers, crediting them with destroying or damaging 99 Japanese planes in a powerful four-day offensive against Hankow, Hainan island and Hongkong.

Scioto Ordnance Plant Labor Dispute Listed

A Scioto Ordnance Plant labor dispute has been referred to the regional board for handling, Frederick H. Bullen, disputes director of the regional war labor board at Cleveland, announced today. The Associated Press reported.

He listed the dispute as being between the Scioto Ordnance Plant (U. S. Rubber Co.) and the plant protection unit of the CIO United Rubber Workers, involving 250 employees. Issues were listed as wages, vacations, union security, hours, promotions, transfers, premium rates for night work, bonuses for special classifications.

Fichter Wants Farmers Consulted on Rationing
COLUMBUS, O., July 29—Joseph W. Fichter, master of the Ohio State Grange, believes representatives of farm organizations should be given an opportunity to present rural transportation problems before a decision is reached on proposals to reduce gasoline rations in the midwest.

In a letter to Petroleum Administrator Harold Ickes, Fichter said he thought such a reduction would be "a serious handicap to farmers in this section who do not have public transportation facilities available to a * * * people who live in the more thickly populated sections."

He suggested the farm element be given an opportunity to present its case before any extension in gasoline rationing is ordered.

WORK HARDER FOR VICTORY PEOPLE ASKED

Roosevelt Says There Is No Time Now To Gloat Over Mussolini.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, July 29—Reporting Italy on the ropes, Germany blackened by bombs, and Japan losing the initiative in the Pacific, President Roosevelt called on the American people and their allies today to follow through with the knockout punch that spells "total victory."

The Chief Executive, reporting to the nation on the war effort abroad and at home for the first time in almost six months, told a radio audience last night that:

1—The United Nations may not take time out to gloat over the downfall of Dictator Benito Mussolini and the obvious plight of Italy, but must go on to demand unconditional surrender. Then Japan and Germany must be whipped on their home grounds.

2—The axis leadership must eventually be hunted out and prosecuted for war guilt. No mere resignation, such as Mussolini's, may interfere with this.

All this will command increased effort at home, the President emphasized.

While current problems are mighty, he asserted, it's not too early to think of the future. Hence, he thought it was time to lay down a specific policy for taking care of the men and women of the armed forces when they return so there is no wholesale idleness or lack of attention. In this respect, Mr. Roosevelt recommended mustering out pay, unemployment insurance, vocational education and training, medical care and pensions. He included the merchant marine as part of the armed forces.

Harder Work at Home
For Americans, Mr. Roosevelt suggested harder work on the daily job, the fullest possible attention to food production, and purchase of war bonds to the limit.

Optimistic throughout, the President singled out the shipping situation for his most glowing description of the U. S. war output. It was so good, he said, that coffee rationing was ending now, as of last night. Despite the demands of the battlefronts, enough vessels have been found to haul great quantities of the national beverage from South America. More sugar is in store, too.

Mr. Roosevelt combined these home front phrases with talk of battles, explaining that "no one can draw a blue pencil down the middle of a page and call one side the fighting front and the other side the 'home front.' The two are inexorably tied together."

He paid high tribute to the Russians. Their success has shown, he said, that "it is dangerous to make a prophecy about them—a fact forcibly brought home to that mystic master of strategic intuition, Herr Hitler."

Then he said the United States should always be "glad to be a good neighbor and a sincere friend" of Russia which "in saving itself is thereby helping to save all the world from the Nazi menace."

His reference to ill-starred Mussolini was brief, but pointed. The Duce "and his Fascist gang will be brought to book and punished for their crimes," the President declared.

Italian and German Troops Rushed To Fiume and Trieste

By The Associated Press
BERN, July 29—Italian and German troops were reported rushed today to Fiume and Trieste, where Croats and Slovenes were demonstrating for separation of the Istrian peninsula from Italy, and the situation in other eastern sections of the kingdom was described as tense.

Swiss newspaper dispatches told of the crisis in Istria, soil which Italy annexed from Austria-Hungary after World War I. It juts into the Adriatic sea between Italy and the Croatian coast.

The Berner Tagwacht said Croats and Slovenes, who number 600,000 on the peninsula, were demanding the inclusion of Istria in a south Slav state. Additional clashes between Fascists and anti-Fascists were reported as Premier Marshal Pietro Badoglio struggled to maintain order and save the country from chaos.

News Blacked Out
News of an insurrection in Milan was partly blacked out today by Badoglio's military censorship. However, a dispatch from Chiasso, Switzerland, said strikes in the Milan industrial region had assumed important proportions, with Communists attacking the monarchy.

Walls in northern Italy—despite Badoglio's restriction of placarding and slogans—were reported plastered with inscriptions bearing the words: "Mussolini is liquidated—now the war must be liquidated. Long live the social republic!"

(A British radio broadcast recorded by CBS said today the families of numerous Fascist officials were reported "to have arrived by plane in Berlin.")

Reports reaching the Swiss border said hundreds of persons had been killed in widespread riots and tension was growing hourly.

The anti-Fascist outbreaks, paralleled by massed peace demonstrations, occurred in widely separated cities despite Premier Badoglio's stern orders to the army to fire into groups of more than three persons.

Badoglio assumed control of the government five days ago in the hope of organizing and stabilizing a new authoritarian regime, but the nation-wide demonstrations for peace, the rioting and fighting, strikes in Italy's most important war and industrial factories, combined with increasing political agitation apparently has brought the country to the verge of incipient civil war.

New Government Predicted
The crisis in Italy's internal affairs has reached the stage where even a spokesman for the Berlin foreign office reportedly admitted the probability of a new government before the end of the week. Berlin political circles went so far as to mention Crown Prince Umberto as a rallying point around which a new regime would be set up.

Milan, Turin and Genoa, according to information reaching Bern, were centers of peace demonstrations, open fighting and political revolts. In all three of these industrial cities gangs of Fascist militia were reported resisting regular army units striving to

MORE SICILY TOWNS TAKEN

By The Associated Press
LONDON, July 29—The German radio reported today that axis forces had abandoned Nicosia, Sicily, about seven and one-half miles north of fallen Leonforte. The capture of Leonforte was announced only today by allied headquarters in North Africa.

By The Associated Press
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, July 29—American and Canadian troops, pushing steadily into northeastern Sicily under raging aerial support, have captured four more towns, including the vital central road junction of Leonforte, and have inflicted heavy casualties on stubbornly retreating axis forces, the allies announced today.

Canadian columns smashed their way into Leonforte, eight miles northeast of Nicosia, in fierce fighting while the American Seventh army, pounding eastward down the coast from Palermo, captured the towns of Pollina, Castelbuono and Gangi.

With the occupation of Pollina, representing a one-day advance of about eight miles from the port of Cefalù, which was taken the previous day, the American armored spearhead had reached a point only 75 miles from Messina, jumping-off place for axis forces defending the island.

Today's brief allied communiqué telling of the "steady progress" of this drive made no mention of the fighting around Catania, southern anchor of the axis Mt. Etna defense line, where the British 8th army has been stalled against the

SOUTHERN OHIO HIT BY WIND AND RAIN

By The Associated Press
CINCINNATI, July 29—A heavy electrical and wind storm swept over southern Ohio last night, flooding streets, damaging crops, felling trees and utility poles, and starting several fires.

Nearly an inch of rain fell here, forcing postponement of the Boston-Cincinnati war relief ball game. Street car service was interrupted in several sections by lightning hits on the trolley wires. Power failed in spots, preventing numerous persons from listening to President Roosevelt's radio address. Wind gusts reached a velocity of 45 miles an hour in Middletown, where it destroyed a junk warehouse, and in Hamilton telephone service was disrupted by a lightning hit. The village of Mason was dark for several hours. The Portsmouth area suffered its worst storm in years. The official main gauge was flooded by 24 inches of rain and many streets were blocked by uprooted trees.

Creeks overflowed in Highland county, damaging bottom crops.

VON BRAUCHITSCH PRISONER
By The Associated Press

OPENS WAY TO HONORABLE END OF HOSTILITIES

U. S. General Outlines Five-Point Program for Capitulation by Italians.

By The Associated Press
BERN, Switzerland, July 29—The Swiss telegraphic agency said today it had received a dispatch from Chiasso stating it had been "learned from Rome that the Badoglio government is examining the conditions of peace sent by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower."

The agency appended an editorial note that it "published the dispatch with reserve."

By The Associated Press
Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower offered five-point program for immediate and honorable peace today and in a five-point program declared the only obstacle barring an end to hostilities was the presence of German troops on Italian soil.

Frontlines reports said Italian and German troops were rushed today to Fiume and Trieste in northeast Italy, adjoining Nazi-occupied Yugoslavia, where Croats and Slovenes were demonstrating for separation of the Istrian peninsula from Italy.

The situation in other eastern sections of the kingdom was described as tense.

Dispatches from Madrid said Italian troops were trying to block the entry of Nazi reinforcements in northern Italy, but there was no indication they were succeeding.

Madrid heard that Italian regular troops, aided by civilians and railwaymen turned saboteurs, were locked in violent fighting with Nazi forces north of Milan and Turin after Hitler was said to have rushed 10 divisions—possibly up to 130,000 troops—from France to guard the Po river defense line.

Eisenhower's Promise
Gen. Eisenhower promised the Italian people in a broadcast message that the hundreds of thousands of Italian prisoners held by the Allies would be returned to their homes provided all Allied prisoners now in Italian hands were restored safely and not taken away into Germany.

He said that the Italians would have immediate peace under "the honorable conditions which our governments have already offered you," and pledged the occupation would be "mild and beneficial as in Sicily."

"Your men will return to their normal life, productive vocations," he said. "The ancient liberties and traditions of your country will be restored."

Eisenhower brought out these five points:

1. Only the Germans in Italy are blocking peace.
2. Cessation of hostilities is possible immediately under honorable terms.
3. Discontinuance of assistance by the Italians to German armed forces is a prerequisite of peace.
4. A pledge that Italian war prisoners will be returned if Allied prisoners in Italian hands also are returned.
5. If hostilities cease, the liberties and traditions of Italy will be restored.

Bulgaria Threatens To Lead Balkan Break from Germany

By The Associated Press
ISTANBUL, July 29—A serious Bulgarian crisis appears to be developing as a result of Benito Mussolini's downfall and there are indications Bulgaria may be the first Balkan satellite to break away from the axis if Italy surrenders.

Bulgaria's position, and that of the other Balkan powers to a lesser extent, is reported to have changed rapidly since the Italian upheaval. An immediate collapse of Germany's junior partners had been considered only a remote possibility before this week.

Direct news from the Balkans since Mussolini's resignation indicates clearly that the people there believe Italy is finished.

Bulgaria, one of Germany's most favored lesser allies, now holds all of Yugoslav Macedonia, and part of Grecian Macedonia, and an Italian collapse would affect her quicker and more directly than any other of the southeastern European nations in the German camp.

The Bulgarians have always regarded Italy as their main barrier against invasion. It is only about 100 miles from Brindisi in Italy's heel to Bulgaria's frontiers in

DEMOCRATS TO ASK JONES' RESIGNATION

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., July 22.—The leadership of Ohio Democrats today announced that they would ask the resignation of Joseph M. Sullivan, state central committee chairman from Springfield, said he had sent appeals to follow committee action to select Jones' resignation for the good of the party.

Sullivan, previously called for a committee meeting to discuss whether to demand Jones' resignation, was said to have been preparing for the Democrats to challenge the party today, after being elected to the state central committee in May, 1941, under the leadership of Sullivan.

Sullivan indicated he would ask the committee to demand Jones' resignation, after being elected to the state central committee in May, 1941, under the leadership of Sullivan.

She Joined the WAVES And Now Is Cast for Movie Role

By VIVIAN BROWN
Associated Press Writer

Phyllis Dockeray has lived 26 years in Hollywood all her life, but she had to join the WAVES and move to the Bronx, N. Y. to crash the movie.

Twenty-year-old Phyllis is the lucky girl chosen to play the part of a control tower operator in a picture made by the Navy to help with the recruitment of a new crop of recruits for the WAVES.

The selection of Phyllis as the typical American girl from among seven WAVES finalists took her by surprise.

"Back home in Glendale, Dad didn't want me in the movies," says Phyllis. "But I'm in the Navy now, and I really love this assignment."

Pretty, blond and blue-eyed, Phyllis has always been popular. When she attended the University of California at Los Angeles she was voted the "typical college girl" and the "sweetheart of flying cadets."

On completion of boot training at Hunter College, she achieved a rating of third class petty officer. After three more weeks of Hollywood atmosphere in the Bronx, she will go to Washington to do some real recruiting.

When she became a WAVE, Phyllis deserted the Army for the Navy. At the Army Air Force center at Burbank, where she was a receptionist, she had been chosen for the title of "Government Issue Girl." Says she:

"I joined the WAVES because I thought the training and discipline would mean much to me in later life—and it really is wonderful."

Though her ambition to be a designer is temporarily shelved, Phyllis says, "There are times in the Navy when being handy with a needle and thread are mighty important."

As for a movie career when the war is over, she hasn't thought about that. She says:

"All I'm planning to do is to buy a sloop in Australia, sail it to Tahiti, and live there."

PROBATION ASSOCIATION CAMPAIGN UNDER WAY

Contributions Taken Here in Fight Against Crime.

Contributions are being received by Judge Oscar Gast, judge of the juvenile court, in response to appeals made by the National Probation Association in connection with its membership campaign here. Funds received by the association are used to fight crime and juvenile delinquency.

Calling attention to the association's annual membership campaign, Judge Gast pointed out that the youths of today are the citizens of tomorrow. "Everything possible must be done to salvage those who will come before our courts this year as first offenders."

In discussing the membership campaign, Judge Gast said it was urgent that probation services and juvenile courts throughout the country be developed and improved to help American boys and girls become better men and women. He said a subscription to the probation association would help insure this development and aid materially in crime prevention.

The association can not carry on this work without moral as well as financial support, the judge stated, and this can be secured only from those who are anxious to assist in the prevention of crime and who feel their responsibility to their respective communities in this regard.

Contributions should be made payable to the National Probation Association and mailed to Judge Oscar Gast, probate court, Marion, O.

LaRue Vacation Bible School Sessions Close

When the Union Vacation Bible school was started July 12, there were 40 pupils enrolled at the LaRue Methodist church. Friday a program marking the conclusion of the school was presented by the three groups: junior, primary and kindergarten, and the enrollment had increased to 70.

The junior class gave a short play and sang. Primary students answered questions given by Mrs. Roy Grimes. A pantomime was given by the children of the kindergarten class, followed by a farmer song. A duet was sung by Margie Dell Wright and Beverly Slaken. A display of the work was followed by presentation of 29 perfect attendance awards.

Teachers were Mrs. Wilson Blue, Mrs. Donna May Trumbo, Elsie Jane Derringer, Maxine Noel, Betty Davis, Betty Wright, Lucy Willkshyer, Mrs. M. C. Burden, Mrs. Bernard Little, Mrs. Roy Grimes, Mary Kock, Margaret Selanders, Mary Sager and Jean Freshour.

Six-Month Term Ordered in Non-Support Case

Earl Brammer of Marion was sentenced to six months in the Columbus workhouse Tuesday by Municipal Judge Haven after he pleaded guilty to a non-support charge alleging that he failed to maintain payments for the support of his three minor children, all girls. The charge was filed by Ralph Carhart, human society attorney, on behalf of Brammer's former wife, who lives in Marion.

Brammer was arrested by Marion police Saturday after the warrant had been sworn out by local authorities. Deputy Sheriff LeRoy Retterer went to Marion Sunday and returned Brammer to Marion. He was held in county jail before his appearance in court Tuesday.

His former wife accused him of having discontinued support payments for his children about eight months ago and never having resumed them, Carhart said.

Hospital Addition Rushed

Reported Week to 10 Days Ahead of Schedule; Electrical Contractor Starts Crew.

The temporary addition to the Marion City hospital is being completed in a matter of days, according to the electrical contractor who is starting work on the project, said yesterday.

The project is a week ahead of schedule and is expected to be completed in ten days, according to the electrical contractor, J. D. Kessel, of the Kessel Electric Co. of Geneva, electrical contractor on the project, said it might be difficult to obtain special electrical devices used in operating rooms and in various other parts of the hospital.

Mr. Kessel, assisted by two electricians, started work on project for the first time Tuesday. A Marion man, Harry Pfeiffer, will supervise the electrical work in the absence of Mr. Kessel.

Approximately one-third of the heating work has been completed by Walter Durtsche and two other workmen employed by Wuestling & Theodor, Columbus heating contractors. As soon as concrete work on the boiler room is finished installation of the large boiler will be started.

Pete Kemler, foreman of the plumbing crew employed by the Pfeiffer Plumbing & Heating Co. of Lima, said his work was nearly half done.

At present 26 workmen, including 12 carpenters, three bricklayers, nine laborers and two brick tenders, are employed by the general contractor.

Mr. Jones said approximately 30 per cent of the brick work on the addition to the present laundry has been completed. The addition when completed will double the size of the present laundry.

He reported the recent arrival of roof planking, sheet rock siding and asphalt shingles. Workmen yesterday were engaged in installing the siding and the roof planking has already been placed on the clear story section of the addition.

Sale of Blu Network Reported Developing

NEW YORK, July 28—Those rumors about the sale of the Blu network have reached the point where network observers, the few there are, said they could be quoted as saying the "deal's hot."

Kenton Man Claims Radar Invention, Asks for $100,000

KENTON, O., July 28—Frank S. Chapman, who this week filed a claim with the U. S. war department for $100,000, claiming that he invented radar and patented it in 1919, obtaining a re-patent in 1930, makes Kenton his home.

He discovered the radar principle while working as a telegrapher for the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad at Massillon, O. many years ago, he asserted. Later he developed other electrical principles while serving as manager of the Kenton Telephone Co. here. Since retirement he has made his home in Kenton and only a year ago accepted a position in Wheeling, W. Va.

The radar principle involves high-frequency waves, traveling with the speed of light, which bounce back upon striking metal surfaces as in an echo upon the water, thereby warning operators of the presence of enemy aircraft, it was explained.

A Lovely Workroom!

That is what dozens of admirers have said after seeing the beautiful Armstrong Inlaid installation which we made for Mrs. Walter Slob at 382 North State street. Honestly, it is so lovely that Mrs. Slob will welcome you if you call to inspect it.

Here is a job that shows you just what we mean when we tell you that we can convert a drab, unsightly room into a real place of beauty. It is a modern kitchen. Any one would be proud to work there.

We are so proud of it that we had Hughes' Studio take a picture of it. You may call at our store and see it. And dozens of others that are equally attractive.

These are our jewels. These photos tell you why we boast that "We don't SELL Linoleum." We sell and create beautiful workrooms that speak for themselves. Hundreds of nicest homes in Marion County are mighty proud of their new Kitchen and Bath Room designed by Lennon's and installed by our factory trained experts.

There is no obligation on your part to have us design a room for your home that will make you equally proud. Then, too, these new Armstrong floors are so easily taken care of. Saves you all that hard work of scrubbing.

We show every pattern in the big Armstrong line. You choose your new floor not from samples, but from full rolls that enable you to see just how your new floor will look.

FORTRESSES

ing the Kassel and Oeschersleben raids were picked up on their return trip by escorting American Thunderbolts and other allied fighters. The Thunderbolts alone shot down nine Nazi fighters to bring the day's total to more than 80 German planes.

It was the fourth long sweep in five days for the Fortresses and most of the German fighters stayed out of range of their massed fire power.

Photographs of Hamburg made on Tuesday, before the RAF went back that night to finish the job, revealed great damage and fires still licking the docks, the air ministry said. Damage done the city of more than 1,000,000 population even before the Tuesday night raid extended to hundreds of acres.

Eisenhower Finds He's on Another Political Hot Spot

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.

General Dwight D. Eisenhower, who has made a political hot spot of himself, is on the political hot spot again.

Just a few months ago, caught in the trap of expediency, the general was elected to the French command in North Africa when President Roosevelt announced that, so far as we were concerned, we were going to support Vichy France on a strictly temporary basis.

This morning the general broadcast a statement to the effect that they can have the peace for which they are fighting. Throw the Germans out and we will look after your royalty, was the gist of Eisenhower's message. But even as he spoke the Italians were awakened to find word from President Roosevelt that, once again, we consider the authority with which the general will have to deal as only temporary.

Eventually, said the President, the Italian people will reconstitute their country under a government of their own choosing. Meanwhile, Eisenhower suggests, we will deal with the hand of King Vittorio Emanuele and Marshal Badoglio, unless they are confident that, by taking the country out from under the power of Germany, they can generate sufficient goodwill to make the people's choice.

No Conflict Here

General Eisenhower's reference to the "honorable conditions" for peace "already offered" for peace in no way with the President's declaration of "unconditional surrender." But the general makes a strong point in referring to allied policies in Sicily, where unconditional surrender has meant food, peace, and freedom from the dictates of both nazism and fascism.

The double-barreled forensic attack by Mr. Roosevelt and Eisenhower also contained other statements calculated to have strong effect in a country where revolution threatens to embarrass us almost as much as the Germans, who were reported receiving shot and steel instead of cooperation in their effort to set up a defense line in northern Italy.

The Italians are a highly civilized and sentimental people. They are sensitive to casualties and are heartbroken over their missing husbands and brothers. Eisenhower's word that surrender will mean a complete exchange of prisoners must have a very profound effect.

So, too, during the present period of revolution which sees Fascist adherents slain in the streets, must the promise by President Roosevelt that those who led Italy to her present state will surely be apprehended and punished.

Nazis Are Obstacle

But the obstacles are great. To get rid of the Germans, the Italians must fight, really fight. Whether they will show more stomach for it against the Germans than they have against the allies remains a question. The revolution from fascism, the cry for peace above everything else, may bring such chaotic conditions that the soldiers, even if willing, would have no organized support, no organized supply.

Regardless of how willing she may be, Italy may find it impossible to meet the general's terms, Eisenhower, on the spot again, may have to conduct a military invasion with one hand and an extremely involved political situation with the other. And not least among the involvements may be Vittorio Emanuele's determination not to go down in history as the member of the ancient house of Savoy who presided over its destruction.

Wall Colors Have

Effect on Appetite

Restaurant keepers have found that people order more food in dining rooms painted in warm colors than in rooms painted in the cooler shades.

Thus far, no reports have been received of repainting of restaurants in discouraging colors to help meet the new conditions precipitated by the food shortage.

AWARDS COURT SET AT GIRL SCOUT CAMP

Session Friday To Conclude 1943 Day Camp Season.

A Court of Awards will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Girl Scout camp, located at the Boy Scout camp, and parents are invited to attend.

Boys' scouts will include those earned at camp, although some badges earned all through the year will be presented. Outstanding campers and cyclists are being honored. All Girl Scouts are invited to attend Court of Awards.

Today the council members, leaders of girls who are registered at camp, and other scout leaders were invited to the camp site for luncheon and an opportunity to see the camp. Because of rain, however, the event was postponed and the guests were asked to be present tomorrow.

Camp has been conducted every Tuesday, Thursday and Friday during July from 9:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. Miss Edith T. Treat, camp director, reported that the highest attendance for one day at camp was 108 this year. Brownie girls are especially enthusiastic and would like to see more days a week than just on Thursdays as they have this season. Highest Brownie attendance for the season was 53.

adding themselves to Mussolini, the man who involved them in the war as a tool of Hitler and brought them to the verge of disaster, Gen. Eisenhower said.

First Prize of Savoy

(This was the first official message from any Allied leader commending the royal house of Italy for its part in Mussolini's removal. It was disclosed in London this week that Eisenhower, who has been entrusted with full authority to deal with any peace efforts.)

Eisenhower also pledged that Allied occupation of Italy would be "mild and beneficent" as in Sicily.

Swiss-Italian frontier reports said that despite all denials to the contrary, discussions were continuing in Vatican City looking toward an armistice.

Marshal Pietro Badoglio, the new Italian premier, was said to be hoping to arrive at terms which would not involve occupation of the Italian mainland.

London reported there were indications Marshal Badoglio was seeking to get German troops out of southern Italy and Italian forces back from the Balkans before appealing to the allies for an armistice.

Premier Badoglio strove with little apparent success to quell the wildfire of disorders and save the nation from chaos.

Swiss border reports said hundreds had been killed in widespread riots and that tension was mounting today.

While the Rome radio still insisted the New Badoglio regime intended to continue the war, crowds in Milan, Turin, Genoa and other cities kept up their shouts of "Peace!" and bitter fighting erupted throughout the nation.

Fascists Hunted Down

Running a high fever of hatred for their Fascist oppressors, blackshirts in wide-spread "revenge hunts." Virginia Gayda, once known as ex-premier Mussolini's press spokesman, was reported to have been killed in one of these outbreaks. A BBC report, however, said Gayda had been arrested and charged with high treason, former secretary-general of the Fascist party, and Mario Appelius, Rome radio commentator.

Gangs of outlawed Fascist militia clashed with regular Italian army troops at Milan, birthplace of Fascism; Communists demonstrated in many cities, and a strike of peace parades, riots, workers and rising political agitation brought the kingdom to the verge of civil war, said German troops had seized direct military command from Italian forces throughout Greece.

GOLF TOURNEY PRECEDES PARTY AT COUNTRY CLUB

R. E. White Takes First Honors in Blind Bogey.

Marion Country club members and guests were entertained in the club house last night with a party preceded in the afternoon by a blind bogey tournament.

Robert E. White took first honors in the bogey event with an 18-hole round of 93 including a 43 and a 50. Ross Fogle, Marion club member, and C. E. Sherer of the Country club finished in a dead-heat for second place with 89's. Fogle racked up scores of 42 and 47 while Sherer's one-round marks were 45 and 44. These three high golfers received golfing merchandise for their winning efforts.

Following the full golfing afternoon, male members and their guests were served a buffet supper by Mrs. Andy Dewar, wife of the club professional. Also included in the indoors phase of the party was entertainment in the form of games and music.

Richard C. Isaly, 1942 Country club champion, turned in low score on the club course yesterday with a four-over-par 78. He combined two 39's for the day's total score. Other low two-round marks posted by Country club linksters yesterday were: B. H. Buckner, 40-43-83, W. A. Dennis, 40-41-81 and Jim Mayden, 43-41-84.

SERVICE CLUB HEARS CONGRESSMAN SMITH

Need of Peak Production for War Emphasized.

"Let Us Keep Our Feet on the Ground" was the subject of a talk given by Congressman Frederick C. Smith to members of the Y's Men Service club in its weekly meeting at the Y.M.C.A. Wednesday night.

In his opening remarks, Congressman Smith urged Americans to maintain the highest production of war goods and a "Keep ahead" attitude in all work, despite grim views of news concerning the war.

He said the present administration's policies are resulting in destruction of personal liberties. The present arm and ship and the fact that a large number of private enterprises were now under control of the government clearly indicate this, he said. Because of the government's policy of control, private competition is being reduced and in the future the man who had the ability to start from scratch and build a mighty organization will be the pawn of politicians, he charged.

Following his talk a round-table discussion was conducted. Don Williamson, vice president of the organization, presided. Guests included Lt. Jack Bray, William Scher of New York City, formerly of Marion, and Hubert Shelton.

University Research Shows Each Tooth Is Different

Scientists Discover More About Causes of Decay in University of Illinois Laboratory.

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE

Associated Press Science Editor

CHICAGO—Evidence that teeth are like babies, each one different, and that this may be worth remembering in dental care, is coming to light in studies at the University of Illinois college of dentistry.

The Illinois findings show that there are different types of teeth that go with different types of people. Not only that, but there are different types in the same mouth. These findings explain why promising discoveries about preventing tooth decay have failed for so many people.

The studies are directed by Dr. Veikko Hurme, assistant professor of operative dentistry. He is a native of Finland, reared in New England.

Finds Fixed Patterns
Tooth decay in most persons appears in rather fixed patterns. Hardly anyone escapes cavities in the first molars, which are usually the first permanent teeth.

Upper front teeth decay more frequently than lower front teeth. Lower front teeth, or incisors, usually are least subject to decay of all teeth.

The one widely-accepted cause of decay, namely the acid-making germs in the mouth can not explain these patterns. The acid germs are claimed to cause decay by working in pits and crevices of teeth.

Why, Dr. Hurme asked, should the germs sit most often in the crevices of first molars? Why should they choose relatively smooth-surfaced upper teeth in preference to lower front, which are about equally smooth surfaced?

He started his study with the origin of teeth, and decided that it would be surprising if they all grew alike. He found what seems to be a new fact: that all teeth do not grow at the same rate.

The differences in growth rates are quite large, a matter of many months slower for some teeth than others. And these varying growth rates appear to fit the peculiar patterns of dental decay.

It appears the decay is greatest in the teeth which grow fastest. The first molars are the fastest-growing of all, and the most frequent for cavities. The upper front teeth grow faster than the lower front incisors. The lower incisors are the slowest growing of all human teeth and throughout life they are the most durable.

Slow Growers Last Longer
There is a biological principle that fast-growing tissues are more liable to damage than slow-growing tissues. This appears to apply to human teeth. There is visible evidence in human teeth to support this idea.

The rapid-growing teeth often contain spots where the enamel looks different. Sometimes the spots are slightly dark, sometimes pure white. The spots are found less frequently on the slow-growing teeth. They seem to be defects in the enamel. They do not always result in decay. Up to the present no one has paid much attention to them.

If other scientists confirm the Illinois findings about fast-growing teeth, there will be a better basis for applying the science of nutrition to building sounder teeth.

Dr. Hurme thinks there are structural differences between sets of teeth just as there are differences in body build, chemistry and nutritional needs. If the different types of teeth can be identified, dentists will be able to handle the amount of grinding and the character of bridge work differently for one type than for another.

The Illinois studies suggest that there will be fewer toothaches when each tooth can be treated on the basis that, like a man, it has its own individual peculiarities. Dentists will be not only tooth carpenters, but diagnosticians.

SPANISH VETS' AUXILIARY
BUY ARMY AMBULANCES

Marion Women to Attend Presentation Ceremony in Boston.

Delegates from the Spanish Veterans' Auxiliary to Marion Camp No. 32, United Spanish War Veterans, who will witness the presentation of 14 ambulances to the Army, at the annual national convention in Boston Aug. 15-19, will be Mr. and Mrs. Zed Gander, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore and Franklin Scott of Wyandot.

The local auxiliary contributed approximately $300 to the national campaign, known as the "Spirit of '38," which started last December. Mrs. R. M. Miller, treasurer, handled the local contribution and sent it to state headquarters in Columbus.

Final arrangements for the presentation of the ambulances were made by Mrs. Ada Kennedy, department president, and other national officers in the office of James A. Uno, adjutant general, during a recent visit. The funds in excess of the purchases for the maintenance of the ambulances, Mrs. Ethel Cummings, national president, and other officers will make the presentation to Major General Uno. The auxiliaries were commended personally by Henry L. Stimson, secretary of war, for exceeding the goal which had been set for the campaign.

Army Telephone Class
Graduates at Galion

GALION, July 28.—Graduation exercises held Friday night at the local barracks of 1517 Service Unit, 512 Harding Way East, brought to a close the instruction of the sixth and final class in telephone for men in the U. S. Army Signal Corps, sponsored by the North Electric Manufacturing Co.

Certificates were presented to 32 members of the class signifying that each had completed 320 hours of instruction in installation and maintenance of automatic telephone central office equipment of all-relay type as prescribed by the North Electric Co. and supervised and approved by the U. S. Army. The presentations were made by J. Gerald Bonner, assistant director of the school, who also spoke briefly. Others who spoke were Lieut. Earl B. Ward, commanding officer; Roy C. Acker, chief engineer of the North and director of the school; and two instructors from the company. H. Russell Delahoe and Frank Quatman.

The class was composed of technicians fifth grade in the Army, especially adapted to work in telephony.

Kenton Man Is Safe
in Sinking of Helena

KENTON, O., July 26.—Albert Dyser, Kenton, a coxswain aboard the cruiser Helena which was sunk in the South Pacific during the Kula gulf battle is safe at an undisclosed South Pacific base, relatives were informed.

The young man was three years of age when his father, Albert Dyser Sr., was killed by a train at McGuffey. He enlisted in the Navy in 1940, and has been on the Helena since being assigned to her upon completion of basic training. He was at Pearl Harbor at time of the sneak Jap attack, Dec. 7, 1941.

ADDRESS BRANDED
CAMPAIGN OPENING

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Rep. Ditter of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Republican national congressional committee, said today President Roosevelt's address Wednesday night "degenerated into the official opening of the fourth term campaign, aimed at the millions of men and women in uniform."

"The White House announced to the nation and to the world that the President would make a 'major speech.' Ditter's statement said. 'Instead it degenerated into the official opening of the fourth term campaign, aimed at the millions of men and women in uniform.'"

"It is dangerous to our democratic institutions when the President commanders radio time to speak politics to our sons and daughters overseas while they are not permitted to hear the opposition. There will be millions who heard any other voice from home for two years but that of Mr. Roosevelt. Thus the President and the OWI have a grave obligation to avoid politics else they will turn our youth into political slaves."

Richwood Brothers
Meet in South Pacific

RICHWOOD.—Mrs. Anna Allgower has received word from her son Fred C. Allgower, who is with the Sea Breeze, stating that he and his brother, Staff Sgt. Rollin C. Allgower, had met some where in the southwest Pacific. They have both known for some time that they were located somewhere near each other, but were unable to locate just where Rollin was able to talk with his brother for one hour. Mrs. Allgower has another son, Walter Allgower of Akron, also in the service.

Mrs. George Hunt Sr. entertained her bridge club at her home last Thursday. Mrs. J. F. Rapp won high score. Guests were Mrs. J. G. Zuppan and Mrs. William Herr. Guest prize was won by Mrs. Zuppan.

Mr. and Mrs. Harland Wolfe were hostesses Sunday at a dinner in honor of their daughter, Wanda Jane's sixteenth birthday.

TEACHER AT SYCAMORE

Miss Geneva Shealy May Go Overseas

Special to The Star

SYCAMORE.—Miss Geneva Shealy, who has for the past three years been teacher of English and Latin in the Sycamore schools has resigned to accept appointment as staff assistant or recreational director with the American Red Cross in the overseas camp program.

Miss Shealy returned to Sycamore last week from Washington, D. C. after the final steps of the appointment had been completed. She returns to Washington Aug. 9 for orientation classes in the American university. These classes will continue for two weeks after which she may be sent to some base in the United States or she may be sent directly overseas.

To qualify for such an appointment one must be a graduate of an accredited college with special work in dramatics, physical education or music. Miss Shealy has considerable experience in dramatics and she also taught physical education in the Tiro school three years before coming to Sycamore.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Alice Shealy of Sycamore. Each of the overseas clubs is set up with a club director, an assistant, a program director and assistant, a personal service director and recreational staff all from the United States and a corps of assistants from the country in which the club is located.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS ACIDS

Help 15 Miles of Kidney Tubes Flush Out Poisonous Waste

If you have excess acids in your blood, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may be overworked. These tubes filter and remove waste from your blood and help to keep your body in good health. When the waste is not removed properly, it can build up in your blood and cause various ailments. To help your kidneys, you should eat a diet that is low in acids and high in alkalis. This can be achieved by eating more fruits and vegetables and less meat and dairy products. You should also drink plenty of water to help flush out your kidneys.

Ban on Wine To Close Wineries in Ohio

CHICAGO, July 29—A war food administration order banning use of 25 fruits and berries in the manufacture of alcoholic beverages is expected to force closing of all wineries in Ohio. Allan H. Schultz, counsel for the Associated Vintners of the Midwest, said the order probably would force closure of wineries in Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin and would virtually halt production in the nation's $25,000,000 wine-making industry. The ban applies to such fruit and berries as apples, apricots, blackberries, peaches, blueberries, cherries, plums, elderberries and huckleberries.

Allotment of Edible Fats Reduced by WFA

WASHINGTON, July 29—The war food administration announced today an allocation of edible fats and vegetable oils under which civilians would get about 5 pounds or 10 per cent less on a per capita basis during the 12-month period ending next June 30 than they consumed in 1942. Included in the allocation were butter, lard, shortening and margarine. All are rationed. The food agency said the per capita supply of these foods was expected to be about 44 pounds

Taft Calls on Congress To Take Post-War Lead

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, July 29—Congress had an invitation today from one of its Republican members, Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, to take the leadership in post-war planning by doing away with the New Deal in its most dangerous aspects.

In a defense of the independent attitude he said lawmakers had played toward the administration in its session, Taft charged in a radio address last night that attempts were under way to "temper congress."

Denying that "a few healthy differences on policy at home or any harm to the war effort," the Oriskany said congress was at the crossroads where it faces "another New Deal program for the

St. Mary Parish To Hold Family Picnic on Aug. 8

An old-fashioned family picnic with a band concert, races, ball game and other sports as entertainment features, is being arranged for St. Mary's parish outing to be held Sunday, Aug. 8, at the Marion county fairground. A special invitation is extended to the many new families of the parish who have moved to Marion during the last year and a "get-acquainted" committee has been named to welcome the newcomers.

Music for the picnic will be furnished by the Eagles band. Invited as special guests are families of parishioners serving with the armed forces. A special effort is being made to have a large attendance and the contest and race committees are planning contests and sports for every boy and girl present.

A band number will be dedicated to the men in the armed forces and the concert will close with the singing of "God Bless America."

WATCH FOR HIM. For the second time, Karl Luft, 21-year-old German war prisoner, has escaped. The FBI in Washington announced that Luft had escaped from a federal immigration and naturalization camp at Fort Stanton, N. M. Luft, who escaped last November while being transported to an internment camp at Bowling Green, Ky., and then was captured the next day, was seized in November 1941, when the U. S. Navy captured a German motorship in the south Atlantic while flying an American flag.

Numerous Sports Stars Listed Among Friends of LaRue Man

Acquaintance With Paddock, Thorpe, Dempsey
Results From Mutual Interest in Dogs.

By W. T. TIBBALS

Friend of the Star
The career of the man who at one time was the world's largest seller of dogs by mail was launched.
He developed the largest organization of its kind in the world for raising, training and marketing dogs by mail. The outstanding product of his kennel was the "Lingero," not a first cousin to a Kangaroo but a type of cross-bred produced by crossing the short-haired type of airdale, the black-and-tan coon hound and the German Doberman pinscher. The name is a twist of the developer's own.

Of the hundreds of interesting experiences he has had in more than 40 years of "going to the dogs," Mr. Lingo fondly recalls the day in which he broke up a White House dinner with "just dog talk."

"We (the Orang Indians) had just finished a game with the Baltimore Orioles when Thorpe and I went to the White House to see Dr. Charles E. Sawyer of Marion, who served as President Harding's personal physician. During the conversation Laddie Boy, the President's airdale, was mentioned. Hearing the conversation President Harding excused himself from the dinner table and stepped out on the porch. The four of us talked 'dog talk' for a half hour," Mr. Lingo said.

Thorpe Stands Out

Of all the athletes with whom he has been affiliated, probably Jim Thorpe, the Sac and Fox Indian, is regarded as the world's greatest all-around athlete, above all others has left the most indelible impression in Mr. Lingo's memory. For that matter sportsmen who saw Thorpe in action in one or another of his specialties expect never again to see the feats performed equally as well.

Thorpe for several years was employed by Lingo as a dog trainer at the Orang establishment. He was superintendent of the LaRue kennel and in that position was in charge of from 40 to 50 college-trained Indians who served as trainers for nine months of the year and as football players for the remaining months.

They formed what probably is one of the greatest and by far the most interesting football team ever assembled. One or another of the members of the 50-man squad possessed every outstanding ability which goes to make up greatness in a football team. Besides having a great number of super individuals the team boasted speed and fitness throughout.

It has been said by outstanding sports writers who religiously followed the team that no other squad—either college or professional—was potentially as great.

One a Lawyer

One other member of the team,

known only as St. Germaine, topped the six-foot mark by several inches and weighed nearly 300 pounds at the height of the football season. After ending his playing days with the Orangs St. Germaine, a graduate of Carlisle school, attended the law school at Yale university. "When he isn't touring the country with an all-Indian football team, he is practicing law," Mr. Lingo said.

Despite the fact that the team operated for only two full seasons, it is still regarded as one of the most colorful ever gotten together. Besides furnishing entertainment, the team's sole purpose was for advertising the equally famous Orang airdales. The backing of the team was considered up to that time to be one of the greatest and most successful big-time publicity schemes.

During the off-season the Indians returned to LaRue where they were employed as dog trainers. Between 40 and 50 Indian families were maintained by Mr. Lingo in a woods on the bank of the Scioto river opposite the village.

To this day Mr. Lingo is one of Thorpe's staunchest supporters. He stated recently that he felt the restoration of Thorpe's honors by the A. A. U. would partially restore the unassuming Indian in his rightful position as one of the world's greatest athletic heroes.

Mr. Lingo recalled that Thorpe was an outstanding athlete "even when he was 40 years old." At this age he could run for miles and swim great distances, always outdistancing his younger rivals, the LaRue sportsman said.

After ending his playing days with the Orangs St. Germaine, a graduate of Carlisle school, attended the law school at Yale university. "When he isn't touring the country with an all-Indian football team, he is practicing law," Mr. Lingo said.

Despite the fact that the team operated for only two full seasons, it is still regarded as one of the most colorful ever gotten together. Besides furnishing entertainment, the team's sole purpose was for advertising the equally famous Orang airdales. The backing of the team was considered up to that time to be one of the greatest and most successful big-time publicity schemes.

During the off-season the Indians returned to LaRue where they were employed as dog trainers. Between 40 and 50 Indian families were maintained by Mr. Lingo in a woods on the bank of the Scioto river opposite the village.

To this day Mr. Lingo is one of Thorpe's staunchest supporters. He stated recently that he felt the restoration of Thorpe's honors by the A. A. U. would partially restore the unassuming Indian in his rightful position as one of the world's greatest athletic heroes.

Mr. Lingo recalled that Thorpe was an outstanding athlete "even when he was 40 years old." At this age he could run for miles and swim great distances, always outdistancing his younger rivals, the LaRue sportsman said.

CONQUERED WAVE U. S. FLAG. When American troops entered Palermo, Sicilian capital, and the largest city, which fell to the Allies without firing of a shot by its defenders, members of the population greeted the Yanks so enthusiastically that one even carried the Stars and Stripes. Others clamored for a chance to carry the flag while others tossed fruit and flowers to American troops. (Associated Press Photo via Signal Corps radio from Algiers.)

Or in other words, the Orangs, as they were known, seldom if ever performed at capacity. Instead one or two members of the team would bear the brunt of the attack.

Thorpe on few occasions, either as a collegiate star or later as a professional, played to his fullest ability. This same fact was true for almost every other member of the team.

In National League

The versatile Indian was also manager of the team, which for two seasons held a franchise in the National football league which then included 12 teams. Probably the Indians' greatest accomplishment was a victory over the Buffalo Bisons, world's professional champions of 1921, during the 1922 season.

The team toured the country throughout the gridiron season, playing a large number of non-league teams in addition to the regular league teams. Made up entirely of Indians, most of them graduates of Carlisle school in Pennsylvania, the team includes besides Thorpe such great Indian athletes as Joe Guyon and Pete Calac. Guyon now is holding down a head coaching job at a state college in New Mexico and Calac is captain of police at Canton, O.

Another member of the team was Little Beaver, who as Leon Boutwell, is now editor and publisher of the state's smallest daily newspaper at Mechanicsburg. Boutwell and Calac were the only two members of the colorful team to remain in Ohio, Mr. Lingo remarked.

Please Don't Steal Bum's Stuff Is Plea of Baseball Scribe To Bill Cox and His Phillies

By SID FEDER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Before the whole thing gets out of hand, this is a plea to William D. (Bill) Cox and his Philadelphia Phillies to please leave Brooklyn with its Brooklyn accent.

The way things have been going lately, what with the Dodgers dumped into third place in the National League yesterday, to one is going to mind much if they move Coney Island out of Brooklyn's front yard down to Broad and Market in the city of Brotherly Love.

First there was the series of player deals worked up early this year by William D. (Bill) Cox and his Philadelphia Phillies. Then the Phillies fired Bucky Harris and took their new manager, Freddie Fitzsimmons off the Dodger payroll—and even let the Dodgers announce it.

And last night, the Phils gave it the final humiliating touch by borrowing the "Bum's" idea of player strike, a stunt that took the play practically completely away from baseball's War Relief day which saw eight games produce an estimated $199,733.55, along with an appearance of Babe Ruth as manager and pitcher.

The Dodgers howled over something their manager, Leo the Lip had done. This time, the Phils—24 of 'em—signed a petition that they would strike unless Cox reinstated Harris as manager and gave him a chance to resign.

The Phils gave Harris the heave-o the night before, although Bucky had won 39 games in slightly more than half this season with a club that managed to take only 42 out of last summer. Faced with a walk-out of practically all his able-bodied hired hands, Cox apologized to Harris before the entire club for "an unfortunate incident." He told Bucky the dismissal "is not intended to reflect in any way on your ability as a baseball manager," which left you wondering just what Bucky was fired for.

Anyway, his apology apparently satisfied one and all, because the Phils went out and made Fitzsimmons' debut as manager a mere one by clouting the Cardinals 6-4 to snap St. Louis' winning streak at 11 and climb back into sixth place themselves.

The standings in both leagues generally got a tossing around. The Pittsburgh Pirates climbed into second place by knocking off the New

Whale of a Ballplayer with One Arm

By The Associated Press

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — If he had another arm to go with his stout left member—and it has made him known as "Yard"—then 26-year-old Pete Gray doubtless would be one of the baseball greats of all time.

As it is, the amazing one-armed outfielder of the Memphis Chickies is proving himself more than just a diamond oddity—he's measuring up as a whale of a ball player.

When the season reached the half-way mark, the thin, blond Pennsylvania maintained a batting average of .311, the best among his team's regulars, one of the best in the Southern association.

Swings Heavy Club

Gray — swinging a normally heavy bat as a southpaw tennis player does a racket—is one of the toughest men in the league to get out. Through the first 50-odd games, he had whiffed only three times.

But he's at his best in the field. Exceptionally fast, sure-fingered and a good thrower, he went 45 games before making his first and only error. He steals the ball, removes his glove and throws with a lightning-like motion that the human eye can hardly follow.

PETE GRAY
Seeks Trial in Majors

This is the second year in professional baseball for the coal miner's son whose right arm was amputated at the shoulder when a boy but whose love for the game rose even above that great misfortune.

He played with Three Rivers in the Canadian-American league last year and batted .331 in some half a hundred games.

Eyes Big League

Pete's main hope is to get a big league trial. "I think I can play in the majors," he says—and means it.

His opinion is shared by others. "Gray is above the Association average," says Manager Doc Prothro of the Chickies. "Judging him by his present standard, I think he can go in the majors."

"I rate him with the best outfielders in the league," adds veteran Larry Gilbert of the Nashville Vols, "a brilliant fielder, a dependable hitter."

Even were he less a baseball player, Gray would be worth his salary as an attraction. The Memphis Chickies, playing losing ball, are far ahead of the attendance pace of last year when they led the league for a while.

"Gray is pulling them in all over the circuit like that," remarks Prothro. "He's quite a lad."

COMMISSION TO MAP SOFTBALL TOURNEY

Games Will Replace Customary Little World Series.

The time and other details concerning the year-end softball tournament, to be substituted next month for the customary Little World Series, will be worked out when the city softball commission meets at the Y. M. C. A. at 8 o'clock tonight in its first session since the season opened June 1.

Because there are only 11 organized teams in league softball this year, commissioners last May voted to abandon the Little World Series at the conclusion of regular season. The decision of what kind of an event would be held after the curtain falls on loop play was left open until last Thursday when a meeting of all team managers was held at the Y.

At that meeting, the 11 pilots unanimously agreed to stage a tournament open to all loop squads sometime after the season closes. It will be up to the commissioners tonight to outline plans for the tourney. Such matters as entry fees and player eligibility requirements will be decided upon by the commission.

Elmer Shaw, president of the commission, requests that as many members as possible attend the meeting tonight.

Marion Recreation Lanes Refinished for New Season

The eight glossy lanes of the Marion Recreation Center, South Prospect street will reopen for business Saturday night after undergoing refinishing and general repair work for over two months. The 12-alley Palace Recreation plant on West Center street will shut down Friday night to receive remodeling similar to that administered to the Marion lanes.

In the latter part of May the Marion layout was closed to undergo some much-needed off-season repairs. At latest reports, all eight alleys have been thoroughly refinished until all noticeable "grooves" and other defects have been eliminated. They are now in first-class shape, bowling bowligists report.

For the two months the Marion plant has been out of operation, the Palace lanes have handled all summer trade. On Tuesday nights Marion bowlers have turned out in droves at the West Center street alleys to participate in the weekly summer singles bowling classics. Ten of these events have been held at the Palace so far. After Saturday night the classics will be held at the Marion until all face-lifting work has been completed at the Palace.

The Marion plant will be under new management during the 1943-44 season. The new operator is Lloyd Messmore of Mt. Gilead. Last season George Compton of Marion ran the South Prospect street lanes.

Al Shull, manager of the Palace Recreation from the time of its construction until last November when Virgil Case took over, is back at his old post.

Shull, during the six month interim between November and last week, was employed at Detroit in a governmental position. Case, who came to Marion seven months ago from the Alma, Mich., Recreation Center, returned there last week to reassume the managerial duties of that alley.

Jones and Reeder In Main Go at Armory

Rufus Jones of New York City and Jack Reeder of Jackson, Miss., will clash in a two-hour main go wrestling match with nothing barred at the Armory arena tonight. Promoter Les Fishbaugh announced today.

A one-hour semi-final scrap will bring together Rene LaBell, French-Canadian, and Count Carl Von Lehman of New York City.

A 30-minute preliminary event will match Silent Pedro Gomez of Mexico City and Fred Carone of Boston, Mass. The preliminary is slated to get under way at 8:30 p. m.

SNATCHES OF SPORTS

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, July 23—First reaction here to the Dodgers announcement that the Phils had a new manager was that it supported the rumors rampant in Philadelphia that Branch Rickey really is the guy behind the Phils. After letting the idea stew a while, we figure it just the other way—though Rickey and Bill Cox might find it easier to have a special phone for their conversations. We can't see a map with as much baseball wisdom as Rickey firing a good manager for no other apparent reason than that he insisted on doing the managing himself and keeping the owner in his place.

Professional Note—Did you know that a college publicity man these days can't mention one of the Navy athletes on the team as a Navy man without submitting the release to the commanding officer at the school for approval?

Shorts and Shells — The only change necessary to get the Empire city racetrack ready for the harness meeting that starts this evening was nailing a strip of boards on the inner rail as a hub rail. Empire originally was a harness track but the trotters haven't performed there since 1913. Latest tip is to watch out for Rochester University, come football season. They've got 74 lettermen from other colleges, including Temple, Syracuse and Fordham, among the Navy and Marine trainees—also a Sept. 16 spot on the Yale schedule.

Today's Guest Star—Arch Ward, Chicago Tribune: "Johnny Schiechl, former center from Santa Clara, has been rejected by the Army because of a perforated ear drum, a trick knee, a touch of sinus, high blood pressure and a slight concussion. Which leaves practically nothing for him to do but play professional football."

Service Dept.—The latest Ring magazine checkup shows 3,097 professional boxers in the armed forces as of July 20—and Chalky Wright was the 33rd champion, past or present, to don a uniform. John Fisk, former South Dakota U. football and basketball player and a classmate of Major Joe Foss, the famous Marine ace, recently was promoted to major in the Marines.

Industrial - Commercial League:
General Excavator vs. Universal
Cooler at Lincoln; Engineer Depot

Universal Must Beat Diggers To Tie with Huber

General Excavator can spell any hopes Universal Cooler might have of gaining first place in the Industrial league by setting the Coolers back on their haunches at Lincoln park tonight.

Many fans believe with the aid of a little luck, the Diggers might be able to defeat the second place Universal team. In the first round, Cooler defeated Excavator, 7 to 2, but this game was one of those bits where the score didn't mean everything.

The Diggers boast a not too excellent record of two league wins and four losses. Cooler has five victories and one defeat (that to the Huber Threshers). If Universal can beat Excavator tonight, the Cooler outfit will be in a tie with Huber for first place. On the other hand, if the General bunch happens to clout Cooler, the Industrial league pennant will be practically won for Huber.

The Threshers have one more league game remaining, that with the Marion Engineer Depot. Cooler will still have Commercial Steel to contend with after tonight's battle with the Diggers.

Probable starting moundmen for Cooler will be slick Bill Everly, who has pitched in every Universal game this year. He now makes as second best hurler in the Industrial look next to "Fat" Miller. Paul Sykes probably will do the twirling for General Excavator, for the first inning at least.

In the other game scheduled tonight, Coca-Cola will meet the Marion Engineer Depot in a no-count contest at McKinley park. This game should prove a test for the true strength of the revised Depot team.

Of course, whether both of these games are played depends largely on the cooperation of ye olde weather man.

TRIBE WINS FIRST GAME IN NEW YORK

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 23—The Cleveland Indians finally won a 1943 baseball game in Yankee stadium, and by way of reward boomed up into a second place tie with the Detroit Tigers and the Chicago White Sox.

Behind the five-hit pitching of Mel Harder, who won his fourth game of the season, the Indians bombarded the Yankee ace, Spud Chandler, for eight hits and took two more from Allee Donald to win a 6 to 2 decision, evening the series at one apiece. It was the first Cleveland victory in five New York appearances.

Manager Lou Boudreau hammered a home run into the left field stands in the fourth inning, his second of the year, and scored behind Ray Mack. Boudreau hit safely three times in the game, leading the attack.

When the major leaguers were through battling each other they combined forces to lose an 11 to 5 exhibition to the Naval preflight Cloudbusters of Chapel Hill, N. C. It was a benefit for the National War Fund, Inc.

WARTIME FUTURE OF FOOTBALL STUDIED

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK, July 23—Some 60 football coaches and athletic directors have spent 24 hours listening to speeches on the wartime fate of the gridiron sport—and wound up dizzier than a freshman running through his first T-formation assignments.

They heard Maj. Gen. Philip B. Fleming of the federal war agency, formerly graduate manager of athletics at the U. S. Military academy, tell them that the plan offered by Asa Bushnell, head of the eastern office for intercollegiate athletics, was "so sound it is worthy of war department study again and should be presented to the President's three-man sports committee when it is named."

And they also listened as Dr. John Harmon of Boston university gave tacit approval to the army's ban of intercollegiate sports for its trainees stationed on the country's campuses.

The meeting yesterday already had recessed when Rep. Samuel Weiss of Pennsylvania, who today's speaking program here, announced in Washington he had received a letter from President Roosevelt that indicated a possible reconsideration of the Army order.

In contrast to the Army ruling, Navy college trainees are permitted to compete if it does not interfere with their studies.

THIS AND THAT

Some Game Protector reports "There has been more fishing than ever in Athens county this year" bass up to 20 inches, crappies, 14 inches, the limit having been taken in 45 minutes, catfish up to 20 1/2 lbs., carp, 28 lbs., suckers 15 lbs. The largest string of catfish seen this year numbered 16, weighing up to 8 lbs. The favorite fishing spot in Athens county is at the Whites Mill Dam, where in one evening more than 100 fishermen have tried their luck.

Fishing has been extra good here in the county, especially in the Muskingum river, as fishermen made good catches of catfish, sheepshead, suckers, carp and a few bass and crappies and walleyes. "A very interesting thing occurred here this spring. A robin had three young, and when ever she left her nest to get food for her young, a wren would come in and feed them. She kept this up until the robins left their nest, then tried to protect them the same as if they were her own. Judging from the indications I see, we are going to have a lot of raccoon this year. I never saw a better outlook. There have been some very nice bass caught on Dry creek in Liberty township this year. Catfish and carp have been biting good in the Mohican." Ohioans who like to hunt groundhogs should take heed of the warnings that have been made against accidents. In Pennsylvania a 13-year old lad was lying in high grass observing two woodchuck holes on his own farm, his light brown hair resembling the general color pattern of one of the animals. A neighbor-

Race Draws Tigher

By The Associated Press

While Milwaukee continues to regulate the first place challenge of Indianapolis in the tight American association race, another contender—the Columbus Redbirds—are moving into threatening position.

Columbus advanced into a virtual tie with second place Indianapolis last night, going 13 innings to defeat St. Paul, 10-9 while the Indians were losing to Milwaukee, 10-5.

Here is how the leaders stand:

Minneapolis pulled within a half game of fourth place Toledo by defeating the Mudhens, 8-4. At Kansas City, the last place Blues rose up to take both games of a doubleheader from Louisville, 7-1 and 8-5.

Hornsby Calls "Black Sox" Best Baseball Team He Ever Saw Play

By HAROLD RATLIFF
AP Sports Writer

FORT WORTH, TEN. — The greatest baseball team he ever saw—and he looked over quite a few in two decades as player and manager in the big league—was Chicago's White Sox of 1919, says Rogers Hornsby.

Yes, the Black Sox of baseball's darkest page.

"I know they were the Black Sox and as such have been justly discredited, but as ball players that entire team position by position has unmatched skill. The records bear that out," Hornsby said.

The Rajah, now living here waiting for the Texas League to resume operations so he can manage the Fort Worth Cats again, gave his views in connection with a magazine article quoting Manager Billy Southworth of the St. Louis Cardinals as saying the 1942 world's champions were the best.

Blames Yankees

Last fall before the start of the World Series the outspoken Hornsby stated, in reply to questions, that the 1942 Cardinals weren't in the same class with the 1926 Cardinals, whom Hornsby managed and led to victory over the New York Yankees.

The Rajah also guessed Southworth's youngsters would not fare well in the test before them. That guess didn't prove out but Hornsby didn't backtrack on his opinion of comparative strength of teams.

He only added that he had made the mistake of taking for granted that the Yankees, whom he has not seen were good when, as a matter of fact, they'd gone down even more than the National League champions, whom he had watched the last few games of the regular season.

But Hornsby didn't take Southworth to task for saying "You can't blame him for that," Rogers said. "Doesn't every manager of a winner feel like his team is the best?"

1926 Team Had Spirit

Hornsby didn't think, however, that his 1926 team was the best in baseball. Grinning, he said:

"That 1926 bunch was a fine team. I had great sport and played together well, but I'm sure it wasn't the world's best. It wasn't even the best team in the National League that year, but it won the pennant and went ahead to beat a better New York team."

"But you can't blame a fellow in Southworth's position for bragging about the team that won for him—after all, he's still the manager of virtually the same team."

In picking the 1919 White Sox, Hornsby commented:

"I can't say about the best team of all time—I can only have an opinion about those teams I saw, about those teams made up of players I know about. Of those teams I think I take the Chicago White Sox of 1919."

Shull Wins Bowling

Classic with 765 Score

Victory in the eleventh weekly singles bowling classic Tuesday night heralded Al Shull's return as Palace Recreation Center manager. He rolled a 765 four-game series.

In addition to ranking ahead of all the other nine participants in the classic held on the Palace lanes, Al racked the high single game of 202 in the event. Maynard Snyder finished second to Shull with 732 while Ray Maag posted a 714 series for third money.

Other series raked up Tuesday night included: Floyd Messmore 710; Mark Pinkerman 664; Herb Petrich 655; F. Cass 624; E. DeHolt 663; L. Johnson 623, and C. Phillips 649.

Shull is the eighth bowler to win the classic, Maynard Snyder having topped it three weeks straight. That has been high mark so far with Herb Petrich in second spot with two successive wins.

The Three R's for Soldiers
By HERMAN R. ALLEN
Associated Press Writer

CAMP PICKETT, Va. — The major asked the sergeant to send Corporal Wong into his office. "Wong," he asked the snappy looking soldier after an exchange of salutes, "where did you live before you came into the army?" "In Brooklyn, sir—New York City."

"What was your address there?" The corporal told him. "Thank you, Wong. That's all." Corporal Wong saluted, bowed and stepped out.

The major, Mr. W. H. Gifford, a Vermont psychiatrist, turned to me.

"Two months ago," he said, "what man couldn't speak a word of English. He lived in a Chinese section, worked in a laundry, had no contact with English-speaking people. Now we're using him to help teach English to other Chinese."

Corporal Wong (that's not his real name) is only one of 700 men in English—speaking draftees who have been given a working knowledge of English since the course was started in the Medical Replacement Training Center in September, 1941. In addition, about 1,300 native Americans have been taught to read and write.

Fourth-Grade Education
Major Gifford's figures show that 65 per cent of the men who have gone through the course got the equivalent of a fourth-grade education in reading, writing and arithmetic in eight weeks—whether or not they spoke English when they started. The other five per cent were discharged from the Army.

"Come over to the classroom," said Major Gifford, "and I'll show you how it works."

Two classes of six men were at work in charge of corporals carefully selected from former school teachers. The men were in their second three-hour session.

Learning Sounds
"Yesterday, you remember," one of the corporals was saying, "I told you that there were only five sounds in the English language—a, e, i, o and u. Today I'm going to show you how we connect those sounds with bridges made by the lips, tongue and teeth. For instance, when you say something like 'the cat sat on the blackboard' you do this with your tongue and teeth—"

From there he went to the other consonants, and in a few minutes the class was recognizing words like cat, sat, sit and red. Then the teacher took up double consonants, and they read house, ear, mouse and enormous.

STOCKS STAY ON UPGRADE

Yesterday's Late Rally Carries Over Into Trading Session Today.

NEW YORK, July 23.—Stocks rallied further today under the momentum of yesterday's late hour uptick.

Advances in industrial and rail leaders ranged from fractions to around 2 points in an active first hour buying movement. After this the market turned relatively quiet but gains were generally well maintained near the fourth hour.

Among issues carrying the best advance signs were Goodrich, Goodyear, Chrysler, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, American Telephone, Western Union, Case, Oliver Farm, Caterpillar, Douglas Aircraft, United Aircraft, American Water Works, Westinghouse, Standard Oil (N. J.) and Pepsi-Cola.

The President's speech was well received in Wall Street as an encouraging progress report on the war.

Strength in Pepsi-Cola in the early proceedings looked like a response to the President's remark that larger supplies of sugar probably would be available soon.

GRAINS TURN EASY IN LISTLESS TRADE

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, July 23.—After a strong and active opening with gains extending to more than a cent, grains turned easier today in a listless trade. Buying encouraged by absence of references to price ceilings and roll-backs in President Roosevelt's speech last night created the initial uptick.

Interest in the market faded quickly after the first hour and some of the early advances were lost. Rye saw renewed selling from brokers with eastern connections and hedging pressure appeared in wheat. It was reported that wheat ceilings would be announced shortly, but it appeared there would be no immediate setting of maximums on hard wheat.

Pitfalls of Love

By ADELE GARRISON

THE next half hour would have been most interesting and amusing if I could have relaxed from the suspense of listening to the telephone. I was sure that the telephone would tell me, Ruth Hayes had been called from Marion, Ohio, by listed telephone in the last field.

Annie proved to be a most competent maid, and while her teaching technique was not of the best, I was able to observe her mannerisms and put them to work in the technical problems of set making—and unmaking of sweaters during and waiting for floors. When it came my turn to work, I turned to her for help, and Annie started to correct every little mistake with gusto.

Gives the Signal

The housekeeper, with a keen sense of what I wished, interpreted a number of questions to the maid and sent her on various errands around the house. Finally, I felt that I had learned all I could absorb from Annie, not about work, but about the mannerisms and gait of a hotel maid, and with a feeling of relief, I put my hands up to my eyes and just as I was about to close my eyes, I saw the housekeeper looking at me with keen eyes.

"Are you sure you'll remember everything?" she asked. "You've never worked at this before, have you?"

If the housekeeper had not been there, the probably would have said: "You're pretty green, ain't you?" I was sure of that, but I replied sedately:

"No, I've never worked in hotels before—just private," and felt my ribbles twitch at the phrase, which I have so often heard.

"Maggie will get along," the housekeeper said. "I'll see to her. Thank you, Annie, and get back to your work now."

I drew a sharp breath of relief when she was out of the room, and the housekeeper looked at me with keen eyes.

Everything Ready

"I thought you'd be jittery about that telephone," she said, "but there'll be nobody else in now, and the room's in order. Would you like to go through that drill now?"

"Yes, if you please," I answered, and then, pretending to be a guest, and giving me numberless little orders, she sent me to and fro, and kept me answering questions, for fully ten minutes.

When she paused, she looked at me with a gratifying look of admiration.

"That man Halloran was right," she declared. "You've got everything down pat. There's nothing else that I can teach you. Oh, wait a minute! You'll have to be taking carpet sweepers and linens and things up and down the hall. Let me show you where they are, and what you are to do."

She slipped the lock and set the door a bit ajar so that we could hear the telephone, and gave me another drill, careful to keep her voice down, and I think she watched as carefully as I did.

Ten cents more brings you the Anne Adams Summer Book. A sunbonnet pattern printed right in the book! Send your order to The Marion Star, Pattern Department, 245 West 17th St., New York, 11, N. Y.

the door of 1728, behind which Ruth Hayes had, though not I was sure, with the same telephone, "I'll be on hand," she approved at once. "But remember—keep your eyes peeled as if they were the only things that could possibly give you away. Now, do you need me any longer?"

"No, thank you," I said, at which I had better quit, as I was leaving me. But would you mind just speaking to my maid, and come in here for a minute. He wanted to inspect my performance after you had drilled me."

"I think it will be better," she decided finally, "if you go in there. This is a vacant room, and there would be no excuse for coming in here, while he says we'll sum up you. That woman might be waiting, though, you know."

"Dickie Will Call" "I'll go and tell him to call 'Maid' in a second or two. Then you can hurry over there. While he's doing that, I'll call Dickie and tell him the call is to be answered in 1718 instead of 1722. And you might as well stay there in 1718, leaving the door a little ajar, so you can hear that woman if she calls you. There won't be any other calls. There's nobody in this wing on the floor except you and your husband, the three guards and the woman you're waiting. So you won't have much work to do."

"That is probably a good thing," I told her, smiling. "I'm afraid I don't shine at it."

"On the contrary, I'll give you a job whenever you want to take it," she replied laughing, and then departed for Dickie's room.

She was back in an instant, going immediately to the telephone. "Better go into the hall and pretend to be getting your stuff together," she directed, and as I did so Dickie called peremptorily from the door of his room: "Maid! Maid!"

YOUR HEALTH

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Adolescents

The period of adolescence, or period of prematurity, is roughly from the age of 12 to the age of 18. It is one of the most painful periods of human life both for the adolescent and the onlookers.

Childhood is a relatively stable period of not-very-rapid physical change or growth, gradual mental development and spiritual retardation. The child is willing to have his rules made for him; he is, within limits, obedient, takes medicine, eats what is put before him (again within limits), and with some additions of his own, takes direction about his physical welfare.

Then, of a sudden, these adventures in life put away childish things—not yet a man, or woman, no longer a child, they turn yearningly in both directions.

The other sex is discovered, and as is the case with most discoveries, results in confusion. Growth is so rapid that they are somewhat ridiculous. Visions and ambitions assail them—their reading, if they do any, becomes adult. They are moody, shy, sulky, loud, or obstreperous, as the case may be.

In wartime all these normal symptoms of adolescence are magnified and distorted. More than ever adolescents need parental control. And that is just what is now too often lacking. A school physician is quoted as saying that the employment of mothers as well as fathers in wartime industry is having a most profound and unequalled bad influence on adolescents. There should be no question about the draft deferment of fathers.

NEEDLEWORK PATTERN

Pursue happiness with a merry brood, while you're speaking these charming bluebirds (signs of happiness) on your bedspread, pillow cases, towels and lunch bags. The simple embroidery stitches work up as quickly. Pattern to contain a transfer pattern of seven bluebirds, each with a smaller one; stitches: list of materials. Send eleven cents in coin for this pattern to The Marion Star, Needlecraft Dept., 245 West 17th St., New York, 11, N. Y. Write plainly: pattern number, your name and address.

the time period to accept. It is a matter for the care of the parent as well as adults and children.

The Stars Say—

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Friday, July 26, the stars predict a day of skill, ingenuity and vim should find their way into the hands of a few lucky stars. Keep the spirit moving in high gear and don't let the day slip away. Keep coming in with the stars of the day.
